OGDEN FLASHES.

JOINT CONSULTATION of the city fathers this evening.

THESE FROSTY nights are heralding the approach of winter.

THE PHYSICIANS all assert that Ogden is unusually sickly at present.

TWO PERSONS have been drowned in Ogden river within a month.

THE STREET CARS still retain their remarkable patronage, being crowded with passengers almost constantly.

W. G. CHILDS, Esq., is the present proprietor of the Junction City Hotel. Mr. Albert Herrick is manager of the house.

THE CEREMONIES attending the dedication of the new Masonic Hall on November 12th, will be very imposing.

J. L. LANGSDORF, Esq., of Nebraska, is in the city, visiting his brother, Major Langsdorf, of the Commercial National Bank.

IN A FEW days Cannon & Sons will remove their stock of stationery to the building recently vacated by James Allen.

THE COMFORT and prosperity of Ogden's citizens will be greatly enhanced by the addition to the city's public improvements of the gas works.

THE DWELLINGS on the land recently purchased by the D. & R. G. are being torn down preparatory to the erection of the same route's freight depot.

JOHN A. DIAL has sold out his stock of harness and saddles to M. Munson, who will continue the business at Mr. Dial's old stand, on Main street.

A BARN situated immediately north of the electric light works was burned to the ground late Saturday night. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

NUMEROUS bets are being made around town that Hon. John T. Caine will poll more votes in Ogden than were ever cast before for a Delegate to Congress from Utah.

IT APPEARS that the Pilot collapsed very opportunely, as one of Ogden's citizens was about to bring a suit against it for defamation of character, and he is now regretting that the paper has been discontinued.

AT THE small conflagration Saturday night, the firemen arrived too late to render any material assistance, and gave vent to their discomfiture by turning a refreshing stream of cold water on one of the knots of spectators. This may have been very amusing to the manipulators of the hose, but it was decidedly unpleasant to the drenched bystanders who were the victims of their miserable joke.
